For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coming cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home.

A DUEL.

Jack a quarrel had with Joe,
A lad who ne'er had injured friend or foe;
Save that one night by chance,
('Twas at a country dance)
He set his heel directly on Jack's toe:
'To tread upon one's toe is not so much,
But Jack had corns, and could not bear a touch.

Jack then let slip a furious oath,
That one of them should fall, or both;
And hastened home a challenge to indite,
For be it known Jack could not write
A single word;
So 'twould have been to him monstrous absurd, [white;
To try to put his thoughts in black and
He did much better,
He got Sam Scratch to write the letter.

When Joe received this gentle billet doux,
He trembled, and look'd rather blue;
Indeed 'twas no great wonder,
For thus the challenge ran,
"Fire and thunder!
You same Joe,
That trod upon my toe,
Meet me to-morrow like a man;
I'll make the light shine through you, if I can.
Your friend, etcetera,
JACK BLUNDER."

Now, though poor Joe was terribly alarm'd, [unharm'd,
Fearing perchance he might not 'scape
He it accepted,
And this was more than Jack expected,
Who in his turn was almost scared to death, [breath;
Well knowing that a ball might stop his
But he had gone too far to turn about,
Of course resolv'd to fight it out.

Suppose at length the warriors in the field,
Scarce yet determin'd on the fight or yield,
With heavy heart each took his stand,
A pistol in his trembling hand,
With powder loaded:
For, reader let me whisper in your ear,
The seconds wisely left it out, for fear
Their friends might be by bullets incommoded.

The word was given—off went the pistols—crack—
Flat as a flounder fell heroic Jack,
And cried aloud, in piteous strain,
"Alas, my friends, I'm slain! I'm slain!" [sooth,
Joe hearing this, thought it was true forFor sure a dead man would speak nought but truth,
And fearing that perchance the law
On him might lay a heavy paw,
He left the field, forsook his native shore,
Went off to sea, and ne'er was heard of more.

Jack having found at length he was not dead, [bed.
Got up, went home, and sneak'd away to
PINDAR, Jun.

The bodies of the two unfortunate youths who had been missing since Monday evening last, were on Saturday last discovered under the ice in the Tyber, about thirty yards from the shore. One of them was the only son of Adrian Benjamin Bentzen, esq. governor general and commander in chief of all the islands belonging to his Danish majesty in the West Indies; he had only a few days before accompanied his grand father, John Jacob Astor, esq to this place. The other was a son of Mr. Tennison, of this city, and was one of the most handsome and amiable young men in Washington.

There has scarcely ever been witnessed a greater degree of splicitude than was evinced on this mournful occasion. Every class of our fellow citizens seemed to participate in the affliction which the untimely fate of these promising boys had produced. The funeral procession was attended by the family of the president, the secretary of state, the speaker of the House of Representatives, many members of both houses of congress, foreign ministers, the commissioners of the navy board, officers of the army and navy, and an immense concourse of citizens.—The funeral solemnities were performed in a most impressive manner by the Rev. ALEXANDRIA:
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Wednesday, February 11, 1818.

The proceedings of Monday in the House of Representatives did not, as I thought, warrant me in putting you to the trouble of a letter for their conveyance. Every thing, and every person that I saw or heard of, felt the influence of that freezing atmosphere, and the mind itself sunk in torpor beneath it.

Yesterday the weather abated somewhat of its rigor. 'Tis true it was but little. The business of the house, however, was not much improved in importance or interest. One of the bills which constitute Mr Johnson's beneficent code for the relief of soldiers who died or suffered in the late war, and their families and relicts, viz: that for providing pensions for soldiers' widows, was considered, and passed through a committee of the whole and reported.

Beside this, nothing belonging to yesterday's proceedings seems to demand notice, save a message from the president on the subject of furnishing the government house; in which he recommends the appointment of an agent to superintend that portion of the national property, and to take care of the house, grounds and furniture; and a proposition by Mr. Hopkinson touching the increase of the salaries of the judges of the supreme court: to which every wise and faithful citizen must wish success.

The salaries of our judges have ever been too small; operating greatly to the exclusion of the highest order of talents from the bench. The surprise of the thinking part of the public at Mr. Cheves' acceptance of a seat on the bench is a proof of this. Our present Hardwickes and Mansfields were appointed when there was reason to believe that the judiciary would be supported with dignity; but a different kind of policy soon ordained it otherwise. If the salaries of our higher order of judges were doubled, it would not be too much.

From the National Intelligencer.

St. Mary's, Jan. 24.

The Patriots, as they are called, are preparing to leave Amelia Island; but where general Aury and his followers will take up their future residence is not yet ascertained. The Republica, formerly the Morgiana, has already sailed, and general Aury's brigantine, the 'Mexican Congress, once the Calypso of Baltimore, is nearly ready for sea. She is now receiving her finishing repairs at a wharf here. The writer of this had an opportunity of seeing general Aury, an evening or two past, at a splendid ball given to the officers of the army and navy in this place; where he was treated with every attention by all. He is a fine looking, well made man, about six feet high, and appeared to be not more than twenty-eight or thirty years of age, with a countenance possessing strong traits of intelligence. He appeared somewhat melancholy, and therefore talked but little during the evening; though he seemed grateful for the attention he received. A few days has produced strange alterations in his affairs. About six weeks past he was absolute lord of Amelia Island; but, since that time, he has been in the custody of the civil officers of this country for debt—has been obliged to give bail for his appearance at our courts. "But yesterday Cæsar might have stood against the world, now none so poor to do him reverence," is fortune's device.

Milledgeville, January 27.

THE ARMY.—An intelligent gentleman who left the army on the 13th inst. has favored us with the following particulars respecting the Georgia militia in service.—The detachment is stationed on the East side of Flint river, 42 miles from Hartford, about 70 miles from Fort Scott, and ten above the nearest settlement of Cnehaw, (a friendly Indian town) to which place a road has been opened. A new Fort is erecting on the scite of old Fort Early, selected by gen. Blacksbear, and considered very eligible—it is to be called Bloomfield. The adjacent country is open and glady, and the road so extremely bad, that the troops were obliged to be supplied by pack-horses. Boats are building at the Agency to transport provisions down the river—they are to be shot proof, and it is supposed are nearly finished. No difficulty is now believed to exist relative to crossing the Spanish line; and it is understood, offensive operations, on our part, will soon be resumed. The army was expected to be reinforced in a few days by three companies of militia, from the low country, and 100 regulars. A party of thirty or forty hostile Indians were scouting about the lower part of Chehaw, where they had rifled the house of a friendly chief. When last heard from they were only twelve miles from camp, and were proceeding up the river to cut off a party that had been sent to Chehaw, which hastily and safely retreated. A volunteer corps was about forming, to go in pursuit of them.

The contractor's Agent having failed to comply with the requisitions of General Gaines, for subsisting the United States Troops, and the Georgia militia under General Glascock—and the commanding General having found it impracticable to obtain funds without submitting to a discount, unauthorized and as he conceives, improper—and believing it to be unsafe to discharge any part of the militia, while the frontier settlements of this state are menaced by the savages has applied to the Governor, we understand, for a loan of ten Thousand dollars, in addition to the sum already advanced, for the purchase of rations and other supplies. It begins to be time, we think, for the general government, from whom little, if any, money has yet been received, to attend to this subject. It is enough for Georgia to furnish all the militia, without being obliged also to supply the requisite funds for carrying on the war. General Gaines we are informed, is fully authorized "to follow the hostile Indians over the line, and attack them within Florida, unless they shelter themselves under a Spanish post."

Extract of a letter from a respectable gentleman to the Editors of the Journal, dated Rossville, Cherokee Nation, January 4th, 1818.

"It is due to the Cherokees to say that the communication made through the medium of your paper, relative to their disaffected people forming an alliance with the Seminoles is entirely incorrect. No correspondence whatever has been known to exist between this nation and the Seminoles—consequently nothing of their warlike intentions or preparations were known to the Cherokees, until announced in the papers, or through the medium of travelling white people, or friendly Cowenaws. The disaffected Cherokees, (if there are any) must be in their own country, and their dispositions known to no other persons, but themselves, as none have left this country to seek an asylum among other tribes. To depart from the principles of the nation on the approach of war, would be considered a capital offence; no person dare therefore, to make their disaffection public, or their conduct scrupulous—moreover, the Cherokees are ever disposed to do away all suspicions of fidelity, and to convince the adjoining states, by their actions, that they are true friends to the United States.—Chule-ow-ah, or hightower, a Cherokee Chief of distinction, is now raising warriors to co operate with general Gaines, to chastise the Seminoles."

January 30.

An express from General Gaines to the executive, reached here this morning, with the following unpleasant intelligence.

Head-Quarters }
Hartford, Jan. 28, 1818. }

SIR—I have just now received a letter from William Harris esq. of Telfair, containing the painful intelligence of the massacre of Mr. Daniel Dikes, and his family, by a party of Indians, on the Satilla, 40 miles from Telfair Court House—Mr. Harris adds, that there was reason to apprehend some other families have fallen near the residence of Mr. Dikes. I have ordered a detachment of Cavalry to that Frontier, to pursue the Indians as far as practicable.

A detachment of Col. Wimberley's infantry will be sent down the Flint on the Indian side towards the big bend, with orders to reconnoitre the country, and arrest or attack any parties found in that quarter.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDMUND P GAINES,
Major Gen'l Com'g.

His Excellency WILLIAM RABUN.

From the following extract of a letter from an officer in our army, engaged against the Indians, it appears that their situation is actually alarming:

Fort Scott, Dec. 20.

An attempt is to be made to-morrow to get an express to Fort Hawkins.

Our situation is really an alarming one. An enemy around us of feeble our force, and but 20 days provisions. How we are to be relieved I know not. Major Blubleburg has two schooners about 50 miles below—the Indians and Negroes all around him, keeping up a constant fire; some of his men have been killed and wounded, and the rest left entirely to the mercy of the winds, for they cannot move in any other way.

Norfolk, Feb. 3.

LOSS OF THE SHIP ONTARIO.

Captain Vanschayck, who, with one of the passengers, came up to town yesterday afternoon, has furnished us with the following particulars of the loss of his schooner the Ontario. The schooner Ontario, Vanschayck, master, of 95 tons, and navigated by a crew of 6 men, left Ocracock Bar on Sunday, 25th ultimo, with a cargo of naval stores, (turpentine and tar) taken on board at Washington, N. C. and destined for N. York. The weather becoming extremely boisterous, accompanied with a heavy fall of snow, they came into Cape Henry on Friday afternoon last, about four o'clock, intending to make a harbor in Hampton Roads, until favored with better weather—but being unable to obtain a pilot, and the gale encreasing, she could not keep clear of Willoughby's Point, on which she struck at 7 o'clock, P M. From that time until Saturday at 2 P M, they remained by the vessel, omitting no effort to get her off, although the sea made a continual breach over her; when finding it impossible to save the vessel, they landed the passengers and crew in the long boat, and yesterday proceeded to get the cargo on shore, all of which was fortunately saved, and is now in the custody of the mate and crew, on Willoughby's beach—the vessel bilged. The passengers in the Ontario were Col. Henry Osborne, and Mr. Thomas P. Wright, of Woodbridge (New Jersey) and J. Walker, Esq. of Boston, all of whom, with the whole of the crew, got safe on shore.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FEBRUARY 9.

Mr. Rhea, from the committee of pensions, made an unfavorable report on the petition of Mary Sullivan; which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Rhea, from the same committee, made unfavorable reports on the petitions of Abjah M'Clain and John Simson, which was read and concurred in.

Mr. Rhea also made an unfavorable report on the petition of Thomas Mills; which was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Williams, of N. Carolina, from the committee of claims, made an unfavorable report on the petition of John G. Bogert, who prays that he may be indemnified for the failure of certain property bought at Marshal's sale to answer the description under which it was sold.—The report was concurred in.

Mr. W. also made an unfavorable report on the petition of Jesse Lincoln, who prays for certain relief from loss sustained by a contract for making a part of the Cumberland road, in consequence of alleged failure of the superintendant to pay due attention thereto, etc. The report goes on the ground that the claim has no foundation. It was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. W. also made an unfavorable report on the memorial of Z. McGirt, who asks 3,300 dollars for indemnification for the loss of his property during the late war with the Creek Indians; and it was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Newton, from the committee of commerce and manufactures, reported a bill "to continue in force, from and after the 30th of June, 1819, until the 30th of June, 1826, the fourth paragraph of the first section of the act "to regulate the duties on imports and tonnage;" which was twice read and committed.

Mr. Newton also reported a bill "to encrease the duties on iron in bars and bolts, iron in pigs, castings nails and allum; and to disallow the duties on the exportation of gunpowder. [The duties to be substituted for those now existing are, on iron pigs fifty cents per hundred weight, on iron castings seventy five cts. per hundred weight, on nails 4 cents per pound, on iron in bars and bolts, excepting iron manufactured by rolling, one dollar per hundred weight; and on allum, two dollars per hundred weight.] The bill was twice read and committed.

Mr. Claiborne, from the select committee to whom was referred the remonstrance of Major Gen. Andrew Jackson, as one of the representatives of John Donelson, praying for the allowance of a certain quantity of land granted by the state of Georgia out of the land ceded by that state to the United States, at a period long anterior to said cession, reported a bill "for the benefit of Thomas Carr and others;" which was twice read and committed.

The Speaker laid before the house the annual report of the commissioners of the sinking fund (the president of the senate, the chief justice of the U. States, the secretary of the treasury and the attorney general.) [The amount of the public debt on the first day of the present year stands at dollars 99,004,800 51 100]

A report was received from the secretary of war, in pursuance of a resolution of this house, transmitting a statement of the accounts of Major Gen. Arthur St. Clair with the government.

A report was received from the commissioner of claims for the loss of property, of the facts in the case of John Chalmers, of the city of Washington, with the evidence accompanying it; which was referred to the committee of claims.

And then, probably on account of the excessive cold, which made it inconvenient to attend properly to business, the house adjourned at an early hour.

A grand perspective view of the Mountains of Switzerland.

In the fore ground IBRAHIM'S COTTAGE. Selim enters, Fatima appears at the cottage window, and they sing the celebrated Duet of "Twilight glimmers on the deep." The procession of Blue Beard and all his train over the Mountains on Horseback. Blue Beard himself elegantly mounted on his HANOVERIAN CHARGER! Dialogue and Chorus, "See the Turban appears." Act II. Scene 1st. A CUT WOOD. All the Horses discovered lying down, as in ambush—their leaders across their bodies asleep in different parts of the stage. They are aroused from their slumbers by the shrill sound of the trumpet, at which noise they suddenly rise. The HORSES, as if inspired with the bravery of their leaders, throw themselves into a variety of positions, which has heretofore astonished every beholder. Selim enters—the Horses marshal themselves into a line. Chorus, "Rub-a-Dub," and the troops exit to the rescue of Fatima.

Scene 2d. Hall in the Castle. Song, "Tambourine Rondelay," by Mrs. Parker. Song, "Conjugal Strife," by Mr. Entwisle. Song, "Whilst pensive I thro' on my Love," Miss Trajetta.

The interior of the apartment opens and discovers a SEPULCHRAL BUILDING—in the centre of which is a SKELETON SEATED ON A TOMB, with a dart in his hand—and over his head, in characters of blood, is written, The punishment of Curiosity.

Act III. Scene 1st. A TURRET in the eastern part of Blue Beard's castle, in which Fatima is confined. Quartetto—Mr. Entwisle, Mr. Hutton, Miss Trajetta and Mrs. Parker—"Look from the turret, sister, down."

Scene Last—presents a superb (exterior) view of BLUE BEARD'S CASTLE. On the east side, A DRAW-BRIDGE; on the west, a GRATING, or PORTCULLIS, leading into the castle. Other parts of the Fortress seen in the perspective.

Storming of the Castle by Cavalry and Infantry.

Selim's party is about to cross the draw bridge, when it is suddenly hoisted by Blue Beard's soldiery. They retire and make an effort to force the Portcullis, in which they succeed; and the HORSES, KNEELING, enter into the castle. A General Combat, horse and foot. One of Selim's party heroically mounts the draw bridge, which before impeded their efforts, and gallantly cuts it down, which gives an opportunity for his company to pass, and the horses to ascend. In the course of the battle, are several SINGLE COMBATS between the knights on Horse and Foot—the various DEATHS OF THE HORSES, and the final OVERTHROW OF BLUE BEARD.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber wishes to sell two valuable Tracts of Land—one situated in the upper part of Fairfax county, adjoining the lands of Samuel G. Griffith, and bounded north by the Potomac river, containing 700 acres, about one half in wood; of the cleared land a considerable proportion is first river bottom, equal in fertility to any in Virginia: the upland is well situated for farming and of a good quality. There is also a mill seat on the Tract of considerable value. This farm is worth the attention of any person wishing to engage in the farming business, as it certainly is not exceeded by any in the county (perhaps state) as a farm of profit, and may be had on reasonable terms. Mr. John Bicksler, who resides near the land, will shew it, and Mr. Wm. M'Carty of Loudoun county, or Mr. John W. Bronaugh of Georgetown, D. C. will make known the terms. If this Tract is not disposed of before the 2nd of MARCH, it will then be exposed to PUBLIC SALE, at Wiley's Tavern, on the road leading from Alexandria to Leesburg.

The other Tract contains 1000 acres, and is the upper and most valuable part of the Tract I live on. It is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and bounded N. by Accotink creek. This Tract will be divided to suit purchasers, if found necessary. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber living at Cedar Grove, who will shew the land and make known the terms.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hartful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bleed and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums,

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been received with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of b'ood	Melancholy
Hysteric'l affection	Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses and debility	Pains in the limbs
	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
